Born in Tunisia and based in Paris, LEILA HADDAD is internationally acclaimed as a premier teacher, dancer and choreographer in Oriental dances and in the dances of North Africa. A pioneer in taking Oriental dance out of the nightclub and onto the concert stage, Leila's theatrical creation, Zikrayat, her tribute to Om Kalthoum, performed to rave reviews in Paris. Ballet 2000 Dance Magazine said of the show: "With Zikrayat ... Haddad succeeds in creating a dreamlike atmosphere sometimes close to ecstasy It is a pleasure to the eyes and ears, a bath of vitality." In addition to her work in the field of Oriental dance, Leila has also dedicated herself to preserving and passing on the traditional Berber, Bedouin and Arabic dances from Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco.
